

2017 Fright Night Activities List

Pumpkin Zone

Foellinger-Freimann Botanical Conservatory

1100 S Calhoun St
10:00am - 3:00pm
Adults $5 - Kids $3

Enjoy an autumn celebration at the Botanical Conservatory! Children and their adults will explore the gardens for fall crafts, activities, and games. Test your observation skills with the Gnome Search, discover whether pumpkins float or sink, nibble on pumpkin seeds, and decorate your own mini pumpkin. Friends from the Allen County Farm Bureau will help us learn about pumpkins and how they grow. Admission is $5 for adults, $3 for children 3-17, children 2 and under free. Sponsored by Fun 101.7.

The Punkin' Path

Foellinger-Freimann Botanical Conservatory

1100 S Calhoun St
10:00am - 5:00pm
Adults $5 - Kids $3

Visit our outdoor Punkin' Path where you can enjoy the fall surroundings and take festive pictures with your little ones. The path will be decorated with pumpkins, gourds, bales of straw—and gnomes—to provide fun photo memories. Gnomes are caretakers of land and animals; they are industrious, enjoy all kinds of games, and, surprisingly, they love to travel! Watch for them along the Punkin' Path. This exhibit is included in Conservatory admission and open during public hours. Admission is $5 for adults, $3 for children 3-17, children 2 and under free. Sponsored by Fun 101.7.

2017 Fright Night Activities List

USF Performing Arts Center

431 W Berry St
1:00pm - 10:00pm
Free Admission

The USF Performing Art Center will be transformed to celebrate the Day of the Dead/Día de los Muertos. Admission is FREE! There will be live music, over 10 of areas best taco vendors, a beer garden, face painting, games, lucha libre wrestlers and ofrendas (elaborate offerings dedicated to the spirit of the departed). Artists will be onsite to help turn you into a Calaca (Spanish word for skeleton). Enter to win the Best Calaca/Skeleton Costume Contest. Día de los Muertos can be traced back to the Catholic holiday of All Saints' Day. Traditions connected with the holiday include building private altars honoring the deceased using sugar skulls, marigolds, and the favorite foods & beverages of the departed and visiting graves with these as gifts. Parking is available. Our skeletons will join up with zombies and flood the streets of Fort Wayne during the annual Zombie Walk starting at 5:30pm! Scare up the whole family and come down and join us!

Allen County Public Library

Children's Department
900 Library Plaza
Noon - 4:00pm
FREE

Take part in the Fright Night frivolity and stop by Children's Services to make some spooky (but not too spooky) crafts! Because we have many, many very young and easily frightened children in the Children's Services department, this area of the library is "Zombie Free." If you are heavily made-up in zombie attire and make up, we encourage you to enjoy every other part of Fright Night while little ones and their families enjoy "Not-So-Frightening Fun" in Children's Services.
